CANVASSING THE VOTE.

The Board of Aldermen Acting as Canvassers.

on Outrages Upon the Freedom of the Ballot-Attempt of Aldermen in Open Board to Alter the Returns-A Protest and a Mandamus Thrust Upon Them Without Effect-The Full Vote for Aldermen as Canvassed.

The grand farce that has been enacting for the st four days in the chamoer of the Board of Superors was brought to a conclusion at nine o'clock t evening. The last was the most exciting day of all. The whole force of the company was impressed, and certainly the show was magnificent. The performance commenced at ten o'clock in the morning.

Long before that hour all the approaches to the chamber were filled by a noisy crowd of men, ostly inspectors of election from the downtown

At ten o'clock the doors were opened. Five min railing the Supervisors strutted about with some thing of the jaunty air that up to the night of the 7th of November was habitual with Tammany pol be seen to glitter here and there in the crowd. I fact the Supervisors generally looked like men wh were conscious of having accomplished satisfa orily a very difficult undertaking.

OUTSIDE THE BAILING the crowd was greater, but the same hilarity di not prevail. A half hour passed from the time a pointed for the reassembling of the Board, and thei were on the part of the Supervisors no signs of ge ting to work. The delay was not without an object While the Supervisors kept the reformers waiti er the Board to open the outside room Super dent Plunkitt was at work on the returns in private room, with a door opening on the hallwatere was his modus operandt:—The Inspectors Election, from one district at a time, were brong into the private room from the hallway and allow o make such corrections or alterations on returns as corresponded with their tal This had been going on for some time when Mr. Young, the phonographer the Committee of Seventy, presented himself to te Supervisor Plunkut informed Mr. You that he could not be present.

At this juncture Henry L. Clinton, counsel for dermanic candidates, headed by Conover, came and rather frightened the worthy Supervisor stating all persons engaged in making any correct ns other than cierical on the returns were guilty

A CRIMINAL OFFENCE. It was not the province of the Board of Canvassers make or allow any inspectors of Election to make any alterations or corrections in the returns except in open board. Alderman Plunkitt then rned to the outer room and continued the sorrections" at different desks and among a crowd f people walking about, making it impossible for person to keep track of them.

At twelve o'clock Supervisor Coman cailed the Board to order and directed the Clerk to read the poil. The roll being read, Supervisor Woltman made a sort of apology for the delay of the Board of Supervisors in cauvassing the Aldermanic return in the form of a speech addressed to the Chair. He said:—

bupervisors in cauvassing the Aldermanic return in the form of a speech addressed to the Chair. He said:

Mr. Chairman—When we commenced to canvass the vole for Aldermen and Assistant Aldermen we found that in some instances no count has been made for Asistant Aldermen, and in each instance the inspectors were sent for, and everything that laid in our power was done to get their attendance. In some cases they did appear, and without any knowledge and without any roord, and were compelled to return to get the tally. All their errors were corrected, which existed as far as lay in our power. In many cases we have found it impossible to get an attendance of any inspectors. That has been the cause of the delay. There has been nothing done except what has been done with intriness and bromptness, and we have no desire to exercise any other means excepting fair means, and to discharge the duties which devolve upon us. As for the protest handed in by the counsel, if we understand the law it becomes the duty of the Supervisors to see the inspectors. I doubt whether we have the right to send for the inspectors; but inasmuch as the errors are so large and in some and the law it becomes the duty of the Supervisors to go and see the inspectors themselves; therefore we have taken the liberty to send for them. I will state that no alteration has been made in any return. I believe this Board has the power to direct its own actions in any manner as long as it does it will have been done to direct its own actions in any manner as long as it does it will have been done to direct its own actions in any manner as long as it does it will have been done to direct its own actions in any manner as long as it does it will have been done to direct its own actions in any manner as long as it does it will have been done to direct its own the corrections, commencing with the defective distinct of the First ward.

After the reading of the protests the County Clerk gave notice that no farther corrections would be allowed to be made in the returns until the Committee of Protests had taken action on the protest denying the right of the Supervisors to have the corrections made in private. On the reading of the County Clerk's notice the Board took a recess until four o'clock in the atternoon, to consider what section they would take with regard to the protests handed in. It should be mentioned that before the County Clerk read the notice above referred to the following legal notice was served upon both him and the County Clerk:—

The Most extraorribinary scene of All.

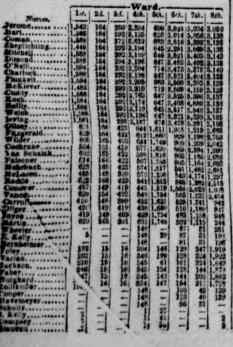

The Board reassembled at four o'clock, and, the roit being called, a reply to the protest put in by Glisey and others was made, stating that they had not made any other than clerical errors in the returns. Immediately after, in the face of this declaration, the "corrected" returns, as given below, were read-off.

A great many of the districts were incomplete, and in others there were no returns at all. Whenever this occurred, as in the case of the Fourth district, Seventeenth ward,

The York was stricken out altrogether.

After shambling through the twenty-two wards supervisor Cuddy offered the following resolution, which was carried:—
Whereas, the district canvassers in the districts that have not been canvassed have been sent for, and have either sequence or refused to meet the canvasser deputed to have she returns corrected, or having appeared, have neglected or refused to meet the canvasser deputed to be have she returns corrected, or having appeared, have neglected or refused to meet the canvasser deputed to be have obeen can all the election districts presented to them, Resolved, That the canvass of votes for Aldermen and Assistant Aldermen be now closed.

Supervisor Wolfman brought the farce to a close the tenter of the course of the course of the canvass.

THE COVINGTON BRIDGE.

The Board of Aldermen to-day passed an ordinance granting all privileges desired by the Newport and Cincinnati Bridge Company for crossing Egglishin avenue and Kilgour street.

There is no doubt that the city will grant all that is necessary to make an easy approach to the bridge and for further projected improvements of the Fennsylvania Central Kaliroad Company.

with the knowledge that the land was expected to cave.

The main portion of Scranton is not undermined and never will be, as there are lauts in the coal measure extending from Stafford Meadow Brook, on the south, to Providence, on the north.

The damage by the sinking of the Oxford mine, at Hyde Park, has been greatly exaggerated.

The effect on the surface by the fall in the Pine mine is hardly perceptable. Even if the coal measure were perfect under Scranton proper the surface is too valuable for building purposes to warrant any one in assuming the responsibility of removing the coal.

one in assuming the responsibility of removing the coal.

Real estate here is firm and advancing in price, and this city experiences a remarkable growth despite the mania for sensations which prompts fabrications so detrimental to a great centre of industry and trade like Scranton, and which are so often printed by publishers who are ignorant of the real facts and who are betrayed into a false position by adventurers having no standing or character here where they are known.

LITERABY CHIT-CHAT.

GEORGE BANCROFT has drawn down upon his deroted head the literary wrath of Victor Hugo. The first poem in "L'Annee Terrible" is entitled "The Fallen Minister," and deals in much melo-dramatic censure of Mr. Bancroft for his treason to the cause of liberty in congratulating Kaiser Wilhelm of Germany over the conquest of France. SPIELHAGEN, the successful author of "Problem-atic Characters," "Through Night to Light" and other novels, is to lecture on Shakspeare the coming spring in the United States.

THE Examiner says of Miss Braddon's latest work of fiction:-"It has not been our misfortune to read all Miss Braddon's novels, but of all that we have read 'The Lovels of Arden' is the nastiest."

THE FULL TITLE of ex-Governor Henry A. Wise's new book, in the press of Lippincott, is, "Seven Decades of the Union; The Humanities and Materialism, lilustrated by a Me noir of John Tyler, with Reminiscences of Some of His Great Contemporaries. The Transition State of This Nation; Its Dangers and Their Remedy." THE BOSTON Literary World computes the increase in American periodicals in the last three years at ten per cent, which is a low enough estimate. It also remarks a falling off in the sales of books, pari passu, with the enlarged patronage bestowed upon the periodical press.

MARY ARNOLD, niece of Matthew Arnold, has contributed to Macmillan's Magazine a finely written article on the "Chronicle of the Cid," the great chivalric poem of Spain. Among Forthcoming works of value on jurisprudence in the press of Little, Brown & Co., Boston, are "Schouler on Personal Property," "Bigelow's Overruled Cases," "May on Insurance," "Rawie on Covenants," "Philips on Liens," and an "American Dictionary of Law Terms and Phrases." "A BIBLIOGRAPHY of American Catholic Writers, from 1820 to 1871," has been for some time in pre-paration by Mr. J. M. Finotti, and will be finished

MISS L. M. ALCOTT, it is said, complains of the republication of her "Morning Glories and Other Stories," by a New York house, as an injury to her reputation, though not to her legal rights. hands of the financial agent (Mr. Kempton) in New York.

The old debt is $6,453,908, and the amount of new bonds seld $5,500,000, making the grand total or the debt of the State at this time $12,300,908.

The explanation accompanying the statement says that the facts and dates are open to the inspect on of the public. The State authorities now hope to be able to retire the loans in New York and to save the bonds now under hypothecation from being sold by tac holders. It is intended to discontinue the funancial agency at New York, but some responsible barking institution will be designated as the place where the payment of interest on the public debt will be made.
